

Emerging Narrative: King County Election Officials Secretly Committed Election Fraud by Adjudicating Ballots After Post-Election Audit

Information current as of 3:00 pm EST, Monday, September 18, 2023

Description

Users online claimed that King County election officials undermined the integrity of the November 2022 election results by adjudicating thousands of ballots after Election Day and a post-election audit. Users questioned why system logs acquired through public records requests appeared to show election officials adjudicating thousands of ballots outside of business hours with no observers present. Users also claimed that waiting to adjudicate thousands of ballots until the election passed an audit ensured that election officials could steal an election undetected. Many users shared the narrative alongside a graphic from a Washington-based election blog or a Substack article from the chairman of a Washington political party's election integrity team.

Dissemination

Users shared this narrative on Facebook, Rumble, Telegram, Truth Social, and X, with Telegram and X containing the most engagement.

- Telegram: Over 420 users shared videos and graphics from an "election integrity" channel that used King County as an example for election fraud through ballot adjudication. A prominent election influencer shared the graphic and a Substack article about King County elections to his audience of 105k subscribers, garnering 90 shares and 455 interactions.
- X: A former candidate for the Washington State House of Representatives shared the narrative to their 10.5k followers, garnering 50 likes and 26 shares. Three other users posted about the narrative, garnering an additional cumulative nine likes and 10 shares.

Impact

This narrative could:

1. Degrade confidence in Washington state and King County's ballot adjudication procedures and post-election audits among those who believe that election officials commit election fraud.
2. Discourage individuals from participating in future Washington state elections.
3. Generate calls for changes to election procedures and an investigation into the King County Elections Office.

Looks like King County Election Department has some explaining to do. Good Job Election Integrity team for being on top of this! 🇺🇸 Vote for Doug Basler to clean this mess up.

HOW AN ELECTION CAN BE STOLEN THROUGH ADJUDICATION AND STILL PASS THE POST ELECTION AUDIT

HINT: ITS ALL ABOUT THE TIMING

ACTUAL DATA OF ADJUDICATED BALLOTS IN KING COUNTY WA

1. WORK AS USUAL LEADING UP TO THE ELECTION
2. PROCESS VERY FEW BALLOTS ON ELECTION DAY
3. ANNOUNCE ANY RESULTS YOU WANT
4. COMPLETE POST ELECTION AUDIT ASAP
5. ADJUDICATE YOUR HEART OUT

If they do the bulk of the adjudications a week after election day, they no longer need to worry about matching the actual ballots because the audit is done already.

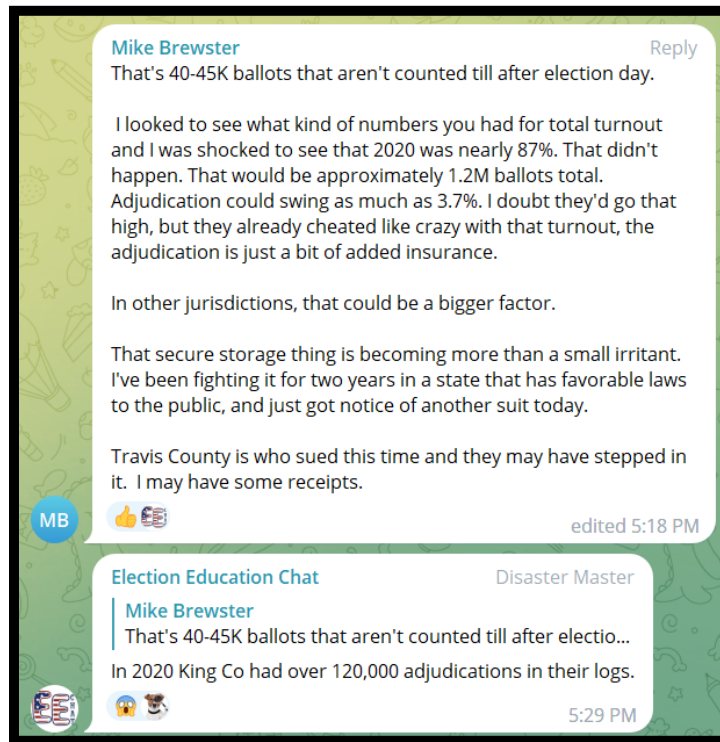

Lock everything up in "secure storage" and nobody will ever know!

King County Ballot Processing: King County has made a habit out of working outside of business hours processing ballots. Their adjudication numbers are very alarming, especially when they are doing it without observers present. rumble.com/v3i99ke-king-county...

Batch 2766

Scanned 11/11 and deleted 5 hours later

Scanned, adjudicated and deleted again on 11/14

This batch was deleted and re-scanned a total of 6 times

Lots of ballots adjudicated on 11/21 and 11/28
